

MISSISSIPPI HALL OF MASTER TEACHERS
& INSTITUTE FOR FIRST
YEAR TEACHERS

- Inspirational speakers
- Concurrent sessions led by master teachers
- Parade of Past Inductees
- Induction of the MHMT "Class of 2009"
- Recognition of 2009 Finalists
- Opportunities for dialog with other educators

Since 1991, the Mississippi Hall of Master Teachers has recognized and honored outstanding educators for their consistent excellence and long-term dedication to the art of teaching grades K-12. The Institute for First-Year Teachers was initiated in 1993 to bring beginning teachers into communication with each other and with experienced, successful teachers who could advise, encourage, and nurture. School districts are encouraged to identify mentor teachers to attend the Institute with the beginning teachers.

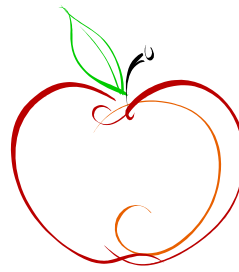

Registration fee and luncheon costs for the beginning teachers and for the Mississippi Hall of Master Teachers honorees are covered through corporate and private sponsorship. Travel costs are the responsibility of the district or the individual. Registration (including lunch) for mentor teachers and other attendees is $15 per person. CEU credit will be available for participants for a fee.
