

Comments from 2008 MGS Scholars

What better way to learn about the MGS experience than from our most recent group of scholars! These comments were taken from the anonymous final evaluations that scholars completed before leaving.

"It is a chance of a lifetime! Just jump into it. It will be the best 3 weeks in your life as you make great friends and learn more about yourself. This is a chance to learn who you really are and get to be that person..."

"Don't think twice about applying because if accepted you'll have the time of your life with some of the most amazing people you will ever meet."

"MGS is one of the best things that could ever happen to you and you will get so much out of the program."

"This is an opportunity you really need to take. Lessons will come back with you and your leadership skills can thrive. Also, you get to meet scholars just like yourself."

"It's an experience you'll never forget--you can be yourself and it's okay!"

"...You may have no idea what it means to be here until you're here. The social environment is created by students who are like you. Don't be intimidated by the "class" idea because it is never boring. You learn so much both outside of class and inside of class...this is a great program to consider--you have so much to gain and nothing to lose."

"MGS is the best thing you do with your summer. It has great classes and allows you to meet great people and form long-lasting relationships."

"This is an amazing, once in a lifetime opportunity. You will not leave here the same person. It gives you a taste of college life. You make lifelong friends and grow so much as an individual."

"Do it! You'll have the time of your life and meet some of who are probably going to be your friends for life."

"It is a great opportunity for students who are serious about building up their resume and/or making themselves well-rounded, productive people."

"MGS is the best honors program a student can attend. In addition to gaining knowledge in your areas of interests, you meet new friends and enjoy an abundance of fun activities. I highly recommend that you apply."

"Even though it might seem like a "nerd camp" or really intimidating to go without someone you know, it is the most rewarding experience ever. I was so nervous the first day, but now I don't want to leave."

"This could possibly become one of the most important events of your life. It can shape decisions you make and paths you take down the road, as it will do for me."

"That MGS is an opportunity of a lifetime. Not only do you meet about 100 kids of your own intelligence level, but you also get an experience of the college life. The classes are very laid back and challenging at the same time."

"This program has not only taught me knowledge for college, but it has taught me life lessons. I have learned so much about myself and made many new friends."

"Apply! It's worth 3 more weeks of school! The friendships are everlasting and the classes truly help."

"Do it! It's a great way to discover your strengths and weaknesses academically and socially."

"It gives you an opportunity to be around many people who are at the same academic ability as you, without the competitive nature of most advanced high school classes."

"Although it may sound very unlikely to you at this point in time, MGS will definitely change your life, and you will meet the best people in the world!"

"MGS will help you discover who you are innumerable aspects, and it will instill in you how to remain who you are."

"It allows for the meeting of new people that are "at your level" and provides networking benefits through each other and the internet. It also gives a sense of belonging through the different groups (major, interest, recreation, etc.). It gives a sample of college/dorm life. Plus, it's a lot of fun and never boring."

"You have absolutely nothing to lose but the opportunity to enjoy yourself if you don't go to MGS. It's an incredible experience."

"The bonds you make with people on your level are amazing. If you think you have good friends, come to MGS to find what a friend really is."

"MGS is a lifetime experience. You will learn things here that you may never get to learn. The friendships and bonds that are formed last a lifetime. Every single person should experience MGS."

"The teachers are amazing. The scholars are excellent. The amount of material you gain in knowledge is incredible. As a program, this thing is fabulous!"
