

Comments from 2007 MGS Scholars

How better to learn about the MGS experience than from our most recent group of scholars. These comments were taken from the anonymous final evaluations that scholars completed before leaving.

“The classes are revolved around your desires. The experience is filled with many opportunities for new friendships and leadership skills.”

“MGS has provided me with the opportunity to create friendships with other leaders my age. My talents have evolved from day one. It is refreshing to be able to have intellectual discussions. There is a positive atmosphere filled with motivation to excel.”

“More than just another summer camp. It is an awakening of mind, soul, and purpose. MGS leaves a handprint upon the hearts and minds of each scholar as they go to find their purpose in this world.”

“Don’t even consider spending those three weeks at home!”

“The best time of your life!”

“You learn things that you probably would never learn, and meet people that help shape you into who you want to be.”

“I was such an oddball at home. Here, we’re all oddballs! I have made closer friends at MGS in three weeks than in my entire life!”

“I think that I am a better person because of MGS.”

“It was so nice to have intelligent conversation with someone my own age!”

“You may spark an interest in the field of your dream job while meeting great people along the way.”

“MGS challenges you, encourages you, and enriches you.”

“MGS has allowed me to form a network of friends across the state.”

“Anything you want to do, you can do it here.”

“MGS has exposed me to an attitude I never knew existed.”

“The program enhanced my leadership ability, my adaptability, and my responsibility.”

“The people think like you do.”

“I am more prepared to go back to school as a leader.”

“I’ve become more of a leader than I ever thought possible.”

“Obviously, earning college credit is an amazing advantage.”

“Everyone is on your same level, and everyone is willing to help build and refine your character in a positive way.”

“I didn’t meet one rude or mean person the entire time. Everyone got along and that allows for a meaningful experience.”

“It allows you to become comfortable with yourself around others who are just like you.”

“It is one of the best experiences a student could ever have.”

“Meeting the state’s ‘best and brightest’ was nice now, but it will be infinitely helpful in the future once we’re all successful.”
