

History/Social Studies Secondary Education Certification Transfer Checklist

If you want to take the traditional route and major in History with a Secondary Education Certification, but start your educational journey at a community college, you're in the right place! With a little planning, you can use your time at community college effectively, and take courses that will keep you on track towards your Secondary Education Certification. Below are the classes that you can take at community colleges that will transfer into our program and will allow you to graduate in 4 years plus a summer or two. At the end is a sample 4 year plan of study.
