College of Arts & Sciences

Brian Anderson presented the following proposals for Arts & Sciences:

1. Offer a New Course – ART/HIS 318 Museum Studies
2. Offer a New Course – ART/HIS 390 Museum Studies Internship

These new courses are proposed as cross-listed courses between art and history. Dr. Beverly Joyce saw the need to have a museum component for students and be able to utilize interns as well. These courses are designed to enhance both art students as well as public history majors who want to understand more about the acquisition, storage and management of art collections. It would serve as an introduction to the museum as well as give opportunities to experience work in the area of museum environments. Shelley Bock made the motion to accept the proposals as presented. Amanda Dahl seconded the motion. The proposals were approved unanimously.
