Items 3-8 were addressed together. A motion to approve the proposals as presented was made (Dee Dee Larson) and seconded (Dorothy Kerzel). The motion passed unanimously.
9. Modify an Existing Curriculum – Religious Studies. The proposed change is to add the new course EN 380 Native American Literatures and Religions to the list of courses under “Central Topics in Religious Studies: (6 semester hours)”. A motion to approve the proposal as presented was made (Donna Burlingame) and seconded (Irene Pintado). The motion passed unanimously.

10. Offer a new course – WS 400 Special Topics / Research / Internship in Women’s Studies. The proposal is to create a new course at the 400-level in Women’s Studies. Bridget Pieschel added comments and addressed questions. Changes to the proposal were the effective date as Fall 2010; course title to be “Special Topics in Women’s Studies”; and prerequisite to read “junior or senior standing; WS 200; exceptions made with permission of the department and Women’s Studies Faculty Advisory Committee”. A motion to approve the proposal as modified was made (Cay Lollar) and seconded (Marty Hatton). The motion passed unanimously.

* Additional item: A memo in support of inclusion of the new course FS 350 / WS 351 Women’s Experience of Family Life in the Women’s Studies curriculum was presented. No action was taken due to the fact that the new course proposal has not been brought to UCC. Family Studies needs to submit their proposal for the new course and they will be encouraged to do so.

Brian Anderson presented the following proposal:

11. Modify an Existing Curriculum – Interdisciplinary Studies BA and BS. This proposal is to include Art History as a discipline choice in the Interdisciplinary Studies listing. Beverly Joyce added comments and addressed questions. The proposal was modified to leave “Art” as an eligible discipline, but to add the note “*either all courses are Studio Art or all courses are Art History”. A motion to approve the proposal as modified was made (Dorothy Kerzel) and seconded (Eric Daffron). The motion passed unanimously.
