RE: Recommendations from the January meeting of the Graduate Council

Credentials of the following faculty were presented before the Graduate Council (materials reviewed in consideration of their credentials are attached—NOTE: Dean McCoy's support was received via email versus memo):

- Dr. Rachel Kennedy Powell as clinical graduate faculty for Speech-Language Pathology
- Ms. Janie Cirlot-New as clinical graduate faculty for Speech-Language Pathology

The Council voted via electronic vote to recommend their credentials to you for your consideration of each as a member of the graduate faculty; the Council's received vote was unanimous, in favor of recommending the credentials of each for your consideration.
