TutorMe FAQ – Frequently Asked Questions

Instructor Questions

Who are the Tutors at TutorMe?

TutorMe has over 10,000 tutors. 78% of their tutors hold at least an advanced degree. Each tutor goes through 15 hours of training, quarterly reviews, and follows TutorMe's See more information below.

How does TutorMe handle Academic Misconduct?

Here is a snippet from the TutorMe Honor Code:

TutorMe does not allow or participate in academic dishonesty in any form. Tutors are to work through students' assignments with them. They will not complete tests or assignments, or simply provide students answers without the required work.

TutorMe's platform was developed to help connect teachers with learners. It is not a platform to exchange answers or completed assignments. Effective tutoring is more than simply giving out answers to questions. We encourage pioneering problem-solving approaches, helping students comprehend the methods required to find the answer instead of giving them the answer and working backwards.

All lessons and messages on the site are monitored, and any violation of TutorMe's academic honesty policy will result in suspension and review.

Who do I contact if I think a student is misusing TutorMe?

If you feel that students are misusing TutorMe, you can contact MUW Student Success Center, to start an investigation. This may result in suspending the student's TutorMe account.

Can I review a student's tutoring session?

Yes, all tutoring sessions are recorded and archived. If you would like to review a specific tutoring session, please contact MUW Student Success Services and include the student and tutoring subject you would like to investigate.

Student Questions

What should I do if I reach my limit?

Students at MUW are provided up to 5 hours per week with no cap on each session. Once this limit is reached, the following message will display.

You have used your tutoring minutes for the week. Tutoring hour limits are reset each Sunday evening.

What browsers are compatible with TutorMe?

Students can use any recent version of a popular browser, but we highly recommend downloading Chrome for the best experience on TutorMe.

However, to use audio/video features in the lesson space, you must have Chrome, Firefox or Safari 11. Screen sharing is only supported on Chrome.

How do I connect with a tutor I've previously worked with?

1. Select TutorMe from the course navigation on the left.
2. Select the name of the tutor you have recently tutored with from the right-hand side of the TutorMe home page. A chat box will appear where you can message and/or start a new lesson with the tutor.

Note: The dot to the left of the Tutor's name indicates if they are online or not. Gray means they are not online. Green means that they are online.

Note: If the tutor is currently in a lesson and you attempt to start a lesson, your lesson will be automatically rejected, but you can leave a chat for the tutor which they will see after their lesson is over.

Do I schedule a lesson?

Students do not need to schedule a time. Simply click the TutorMe link inside of Canvas and fill out the prompts to be paired with a tutor.

Once you have worked with a tutor, you can simply send them a message through the chatbox and schedule a time that best works for both of you. You can schedule to be online at the same time as the tutor, and you can request a lesson directly from your chat box.
