BIOGRAPHY

Zach Harden is a music education major here at the W. Throughout his time at the W, he has been able to pursue music in a whole bunch of different mediums: church, theater, chamber, indoor percussion, solo, audio engineering, and even start his own band and AVL company, Roar Music Group (RMG) and Mickey's Lights and Sound. He has been able to compete on stages in the National Association of Teachers of Singing (NATS) competition, winning first place at state and second place in the region. Zach aspires to pursue a Masters and Doctorate degree in choral conducting and become a choral conductor. He also hopes to one day become a worship pastor and one day even start his own church.

Zachariah Harden is from the studio of Dr. Susan Hurley.
