 - Modify the MBA – Include an emphasis in Hospitality
 - Modify the MBA – Eliminate the Global Commerce emphasis
 - College of Business & Professional Studies – Culinary Department
 - New Courses:
 - HSP XXX – Management of Service Organizations
 - HSP XXX – Food and Beverage Operations
 - HSP XXX – Revenue Management
 - HSP XXX – Event Management
 - HSP/CA XXX – Food Tourism
 - HSP/CA XXX – Hospitality Sustainability
 - CA XXX – Culinary Hospitality Residency I
 - CA XXX – Culinary Hospitality Residency II
 - New Curriculum:
 - Master of Science in Culinary and Hospitality Education
 - School of Education
 - Course Modifications:
 - ED 503 – Instructional Technology
 - ED 523 – Early Literacy I
 - ED 524 – Early Literacy II
 - ED 527 – Integrating Reading and Writing Across the Curriculum

- ED 564 – Diagnosing and Assessing Reading Difficulties in Children
- Program Modification:
 - Master of Art in Teaching (MAT)
Modify the MAT program by dropping the capstone and replacing it with ED 503
- Proposed Bulletin Change:
 - Graduate Bulletin 7.9 Language for Program Candidacy:
Recommendation to remove 7.9 from 24-25 bulletin. Program Candidacy is no longer used across all programs; in fact, most programs no longer use this process since implementation of Degree Works. Review of other institutions' graduate processes revealed Program Candidacy is no longer used by most institutions.

The Council's received vote was unanimous, in favor of recommending each proposal presented, for your consideration.

Respectfully Submitted,
